

Katie Lynne Morton

ASSOCIATE

An associate with HCM's postsecondary team, Katie Lynne provides writing and data collection support for multiple clients, including the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and Lumina Foundation. Katie Lynne also provides administrative and operations assistance to senior-level team members on the postsecondary team.

Katie Lynne developed her passion for education over years spent working with children in various capacities. Prior to joining HCM, she worked as a coordinator of several youth programs before pursuing an elementary teaching certification. Katie Lynne earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in education from the College of St. Rose in Albany, New York.

Katie Lynne resides in Delmar, New York where she enjoys bowling, photography and cheering on the Boston Red Sox.