

Linda Baglia

Senior Associate

Linda Baglia is dedicated to improving outcomes for students and patients through smart, targeted policy solutions. As part of HCM's postsecondary team, Linda delivers high-level policy assistance to multiple clients, including Lumina Foundation, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the Institute for Higher Education Policy, Education Commission for the States and others.

Linda oversees the standards and manages the collection for HCM's 50-state database on postsecondary state policy and provides high-level data analysis through reports, briefs and case studies to the firm's postsecondary clients. Linda also has authored and co-authored blogs and op-eds across the firm.

Linda earned her bachelor's degree from the University of California at Irvine. She holds a dual master's degree in education and literacy from Long Island University, and taught elementary school in New York State before joining HCM.

Linda lives in New York's Hudson River Valley with her husband and two sons.